

EXPLOSION HURLS MEN INTO RIVER

Fireworks Float Blown Up and
Girl Pushed from Wharf
Is Drowned.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 8.—While many thousands of spectators were lined up on the wharves and shipping along the Delaware to view the display of fireworks incidental to the Founders' Week programme last night there was an ominous roar and a flash from a float anchored in the stream opposite Tasker street. The float was filled with set pieces and other fireworks, and in the flash all went up in one instantaneous blast.

Two men, who were aboard to touch off the works, went overboard and in the darkness were missed for some time. They were finally picked up practically unhurt, but the float was completely destroyed.

On the Camden side the crowd on a wharf was so dense that a twelve-year-old daughter of Daniel Stone, of that city, was pushed overboard and drowned.

SEEK MISSING YOUTH AS HEIR TO FORTUNE.

Alexander J. Kaplan, Who Disappeared in February, 1907, Named in Uncle's Will.

Alexander J. Kaplan, who disappeared from his home at No. 233 West Twentieth street in February, 1907, is being sought by his parents to claim his share of the estate of a wealthy uncle in whose will he is named as an heir.

When he vanished Kaplan was working for a drygoods store on West Thirtieth street, and seemed to be a steady-going youth. He was about eighteen years old.

OVERTAKEN BY HIS PAST.

Salvation Army Captain Arrested on Charge of Burglary.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—After having become an active worker in the Salvation Army, Harry B. Miller is under arrest charged with burglary. He rose from the ranks to captain and leading bass drum player.

Miller is alleged to have broken into a hardware store two years ago and stolen numerous articles.

"I was drunk when I did that," he said, after being arrested, "but the Salvation Army made a better man of me. I have seen the light, and will never do wrong again."

Miller married when he reformed. His wife and two children will be taken care of by the Army.

Examples of Greenhut Style-for-Price in Suits for Misses and Girls

We have a round dozen of styles in suits for misses and small women which we price at $18.75, although they would be much more fairly priced at $22.50 if we may judge by what is usually asked for styles as handsome and tailoring as good.

Two of the styles are shown as being worn by the two larger girls in the above picture. The smallest girl, standing at the left, wears the "Junior" suit mentioned below; itself a remarkable value at $9.75.

As a new store, facing the sharpest competition known to American retail trade, it is imperative that Greenhut and Company must "do things." Ordinary values and commonplace styles would never make the impression on the public that we have made and shall continue to make. We must not only be "different" but distinctly better.

This will explain why we are giving values that have heretofore been unheard of in the class of goods we carry. Never before in New York has a limited purse been able to buy so much as it can buy here, now.

Boys (and their mothers) who like the good things in clothing—the little touches of tailoring art that distinguish the boy who is dressed from the one who is merely clothed—will find no better place in town for that kind of clothing than here.

But we do not ask the prices that are usually asked for clothing of this class. Here's an example:

$7.50 Suits, With Two Pairs Trousers, at $5.95

Same suits of the same make are in another good store to-day at $7.50, and that is a very reasonable price considering what they ordinarily cost the retailer. $15 "Personality" Suits and Overcoats The Greatest Advance in Clothes Making

THIS is an age of new ideas—of advancement. To succeed one must ever progress—never stand still. And "Personality" Clothes mark the greatest advancement in the science of clothes-construction. Our $15 "Personality" Suits and Overcoats are illustrative of this fact. They are garments that will fit a man physically and please him mentally—garments that he will ever take pleasure in wearing. They harmonize with his every view at all times.

The Suits at $15 take form in a series of models, radical and conservative, and are fashioned of pure wool fabrics—cheviots and cassimeres in monotonous, stripes and overlaid and blue and black Thibets.

The Overcoats at $15 involve a numerous series of models in black, tan, gray and Oxford fabrics in a diversity of weaves.
